Morton's Singapore Celebrates Its 17th Birthday With The Launch of the Legendary Million Dollar Hamburger

(Singapore - April 15, 2015) – Morton's of Chicago in Singapore is set to celebrate its 17th Birthday, come this May. To mark the occasion, the award-winning restaurant will launch the iconic Million Dollar Burger.

A modern twist on the classic, the decadent burger is made using the finest USDA Prime Beef, topped with thick slices of rich Foie Gras and hunks of braised short ribs, all drizzled with black truffle butter and served on a lightly toasted brioche bun with a side of hand-cut French Fries.

Not known by many, Morton's of Chicago was founded on a burger. One of the restaurant's two original founders, Klaus Fritsch, was a chef at the Playboy Club in Montreal. Soon to become his business partner, Arnie Morton, was served Klaus's signature hamburger and it impressed Arnie so much, that it was then dubbed the "Million Dollar Hamburger". The two subsequently went on to create Morton's of Chicago, The Steakhouse.

Coinciding with the launch of the stellar burger, May is also National Hamburger Month and in its honour, diners can enjoy a glass of red or white wine at SGD17++ with any order of the Million Dollar Hamburger. This promotion is available daily from 7pm, between 1st to 31st May.

"The Morton's brand has been synonymous with superior quality steak and food. Even as we move towards a more contemporary style, we are still immensely proud of our rich heritage. This year, for our anniversary, we pay tribute to the Million Dollar Hamburger by doing a fresh take on it – just like our restaurant," elaborated Seth Blagden, General Manager of Morton's Singapore.

Million Dollar Hamburger is priced at SGD45 and is available on the bar menu. Reservations are limited to the main dining room only, and seats in the bar area are on a first-come-first-serve basis.
