HANKY PANKY

Originally created by Ada Coleman, Head Bartender at The Savoy from 1903 to 1926, for actor Charles Hawtrey, who sipped it and said: "By Jove! That is the real hanky-panky!" This cocktail is a variation of a sweet martini. Gin, Mancino Rosso Vermouth and the secret ingredient of a dash of Fernet Branca.

THE STRAITS SLING

A liquid lost in the mists of time. Created for The Governor of The Straits Settlements, Singapore. Gin, Kirschwasser, Benedictine, fresh lemon juice, Regan's Orange Bitters, Angostura Bitters and topped with East Imperial Soda.

5 SPICE MARGARITA

October 1941, Hugsson's Cantina in Mexico, Bartender Carlos Orozco had to make a drink for Margarita Henkel, daughter of the German Ambassador, thus, the Margarita was born. We injected a little Asian influence to ours. Cinnamon and vanilla Tequila, fennel seed, clove and grapefruit juice.

FISH HOUSE PUNCH

This very potent cocktail is believed to have first been concocted in 1732 at Philadelphia's prestigious fishing club, the State in Schuylkill, also known as the "Fish House". It was thrust into the spotlight with the illustrious pages of Jerry Thomas's book, 'The Bar-Tenders Guide' published in 1862. Mr. Duddell likes his punch made from Dark Rum, Cognac, Crème de Pêche and fresh lemon & lime juice.

THE HERBALIST MOJITO

For centuries, China has been studying herbal health benefits, we wanted to take this iconic classic and turn it into a delicious medicinal signature cocktail. Ginger, coriander, lime, mint, Rum, sugar, jasmine water and soda water.

PEARL RIVER COBBLER

As Hong Kong used to be a big pearl hunting region, we had to combine a great classic with the traditions of Guangdong. Sherry, lychee, passion fruit and Orange Vermouth.

MARTINEZ

First captured in print on the pages of the 1887 edition of Jerry Thomas's 'How to Mix Drinks', its journey up until that point is still one we glimpse through foggy hazes of history. A popular tale of its youth has Thomas, then tending bar at San Francisco's Occidental Hotel, plying Gold Rush-era travellers with something to invigorate their prospects whilst en route to their final destination Martinez, California. Our version is made with Old Tom Gin, Mancino Rosso Vermouth and Maraschino.

THE PARK AVENUE

Sipped and savoured through the 1930s and 1940s within the powerhouses and private clubs of New York. A Gin with a confident juniper backbone, pineapple juice, Antica Formula Rossi Vermouth and Orange Cachaça.

SOOTHERS

Originally listed in Albert Crockett's 'Old Waldorf Bar Days' book, strangely not the cocktail section, but rather in the 'Fancy Potations & Otherwise' department. This rich, powerful, and of perfectly proportioned aromatic leans slightly towards those mid-mornings where the chill catches you by surprise. A precise recipe that includes Cognac, Dark Rum and dry Curaçao.

HONG KONGER

Refreshing the New Yorker Cocktail, and giving it a bit local flavour. Smoked Bourbon, Plum Wine, lemon juice and sugar.
