LEGEND has it the two Foxes met under a full moon in the liberal fields of the farmer's annual music festival. Hopelessly in love and drawn to adventure, the life-loving pair lusted after fine food and high times. They sought a new journey to fill their bellies and feed their imaginations, leaving the safety of the world they knew far behind. Years later they reemerged, eccentric and enthusiastic, touched by all they had seen and those they had met.

Mr and Mrs Fox are everyone's favorite neighbourhood couple, the life of the party. Welcome to their home.

Take a minute, look around, hide out, forage, rut, mark your territory. Ask questions, enjoy the menu, laugh loudly and enjoy life with those around you. Live life like a fox.

But please leave your fur at the door.

MR. FOX'S DRAUGHT WINE & BEER

THE DRAUGHT MACHINE

Mr. Fox has had over 100 wine and beer bottles and will never find a way to re-use the bottles after he and Mrs. Fox had a glass each. Mr. Fox is forever having wine and beer and will never find a way to re-use the savings you bottles after he and Mrs. Fox had a drink in a glass or two.

Mrs. Fox said to her oldest being a beer at their neighborhood bar, "I wish there could be wine on top."

The wine merchant Fox that he is tickled and typed with his design before triumphantly stating "let there be wine on top" with a malicious look in his eye.

The digital husband had given Mrs. Fox (and Hong Kong) the wine on top she desired.
